

Salvete, omnes!

Those interested in applying for appointed office (Historian, Parliamentarian, Editor, Webmaster) should email me (parliamentarian@tsjcl.org) expressing interest. Go to the TSJCL website and do some research - find the office that speaks to you! Each officer's duties are listed in the TSJCL Bylaws (<https://static.tsjcl.org/downloads/General/2016-bylaws.pdf>), so look there to get a sense of what each office entails and ensure that you meet candidate requirements.

Talk to your sponsor to make sure they're on board with sponsoring a state officer. Fill out 2017-2018 Nominations Form for Appointed Officers on the TSJCL website and attached to this letter. This form will be due May 1, 2017; you can scan and email the form to me.

A complete application will include the Nominations Form, a cover letter, and a resume. Candidates for Historian may want to include a mock Scrapbook page. Candidates for Editor may want to include a mock Torch cover. Candidates for Webmaster may want to include a mock website design. All materials must be emailed to me by May 1, 2017.

Want to hear what other officers have to say about holding office? The 2016 Winter Torch (<https://static.tsjcl.org/downloads/Torch/2016-winter-torch.pdf>) contains a Parliamentarian's Letter with some statements from former officers like David Mann, the 2015-16 TSJCL President. The 2016 Winter Torch also contains an article from Trace Turner called "Why I Did JCL," which provides insight into his time as a JCLer and his experience holding office. You can also contact members of the current board (find their emails at www.tsjcl.org/board); they would be happy to talk to you about their experience holding office.

I'm so excited to hear from you - I know that holding office can seem scary and stressful, but it truly is an experience like no other, and I have had an absolute blast on the TSJCL board. Please don't hesitate to reach out to me (parliamentarian@tsjcl.org) with any questions you have.

Gratias maximas,

Katherine Salinas

TSJCL Parliamentarian 2016-17
